

Name: Ruby Chico Kurtelius
Birthplace: Manila, Philippines
PGA Certification: LPGA – Apprentice
HGTPC – Specialist Instructor
Position: Office Manager - Golf Instructor
Education: BS Recreation Management, Brigham Young University, USA
Interests: Family, Travel and Cooking Asian and European food

Ruby is a lady Golf Professional from the Philippines. She started actively competing from the age of 10 in numerous international tournaments. She has competed with outstanding results in the Junior World Championships, World Amateur Championships, South East Asian Games (SEA) and the Asian Games representing the Philippines. Ruby managed to juggle university studies as well as being part of Brigham Young University’s Women’s Golf Team. She won two tournaments and became the player of the year in her second year with the Cougars Girls Team and competed in the NCAA Division 1 tournaments. She qualified for the Futures Tour in the US and played as a playing professional golfer in 2001-2002.

After retiring from competition, Ruby taught golf at Makati Golf in the Philippines for five years, which included all levels of juniors, seniors and amateur golfers. For the past three years, she has been looking after Sales and Marketing at Heartland Golf School located in Jurong Country Club.

Having recently become an LPGA Apprentice Member, Ruby wants to continue applying her knowledge and skills in the golfing industry. “I want to people of all ages and skill levels to learn to play golf, build lasting relationships and to prepare them for a lifetime enjoyment with the game”.